Dear Senator,

As a citizen of Canada, concerned about the erosion of our freedoms, not least freedom of speech and expression, I would ask that you request that Bill C-4 be sent back to the House of Commons for sober, second thought.

As it stands, this potential legislation obviates the freedom of conscience of Canadians, and intrudes into the very sanctuary of the family and private associations, which are necessary to the subsidiary function of the state, whose primary task is to protect those same rights and freedoms.

Please do not vote against our freedom. Vote instead to allow Canadians to continue to follow their conscience.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
